

FOIAb3b

NEW YORK, N.Y.
NEWS

M - 2,097,578
S - 3,070,836

FEB 15 1967

CPYRGHT TRUCE TREACHERY

Rep. Alvin E. O'Konski (R-Wis.), of the House Armed Services Committee, attended a briefing given in Washington last Saturday by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Saturday was the last day of the lunar new year truce in the Vietnam War. Subject of the CIA briefing was the information gathered by U.S. reconnaissance on how the Red enemy was using the cease-fire period to beef up his forces.

Communist Bad Faith

Photos thus obtained showed more than 300 ships in Red North Vietnam's harbors—including vessels from Britain, France, Greece and Yugoslavia.

"They shook me," said O'Konski, "and I'm still shaken."

He added that Soviet Russia is the real enemy in the war, without whose help Red North Vietnam would cave in in two weeks.

All of which gives you an idea of why President Lyndon B. Johnson ordered resumption of U.S. bombing in the north—and why Reds and their pals or dupes the world over are cursing him hysterically for having issued that order.

NEW YORK, N.Y.
NEWS

M - 2,097,578
S - 3,070,836

FEB 15 1967

TRUCE TREACHERY

Rep. Alvin E. O'Konski (R-Wis.), of the House Armed Services Committee, attended a briefing given in Washington last Saturday by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Saturday was the last day of the lunar new year truce in the Vietnam War. Subject of the CIA briefing was the information gathered by U.S. reconnaissance on how the Communist Red enemy was using the cease-fire period to beef up his forces.

Bad Faith Photos thus obtained showed more than 300 ships in Red North Vietnam's harbors—including vessels from Britain, France, Greece and Yugoslavia.

"They shook me," said O'Konski, "and I'm still shaken."

He added that Soviet Russia is the real enemy in the war, without whose help Red North Vietnam would cave in in two weeks.

All of which gives you an idea of why President Lyndon B. Johnson ordered resumption of U.S. bombing in the north—and why Reds and their pals or dupes the world over are cursing him hysterically for having issued that order.